What's New In?

See your edits in a live preview, and as you make edits, changes are automatically applied in real time. There is no need to add revisions. Send updated versions of your CAD files to the printer, and incorporate feedback into each new version. Attach feedback and updates to your CAD files directly from the Adobe Creative Cloud. CAD now supports markup of digital content, so you can add notes to PDFs, images, Microsoft Office files, and even Microsoft PowerPoint slideshows. The AutoCAD 2023 Markup Engine enables you to use Adobe Creative Cloud, Microsoft Office files, PDFs, and other digital content as attachments in your drawings. Use the Import Markup Assistant to quickly add tags to your drawings from the cloud. With Markup Assist, you can insert, resize, and move the files and other attachments in a drawing, and immediately see your changes reflected in your AutoCAD drawing. Read more about these new features in the What's New in AutoCAD 2023 release notes.

No sign-in required to use AutoCAD or AutoCAD LT
No sign-in required to use the new Windows application updater to update AutoCAD and AutoCAD LT. Instead, when you choose the AutoCAD or AutoCAD LT application from the Windows Start menu or the new Windows search, you are immediately prompted to update the application. To avoid unnecessary distractions, the application updater only runs in the background when you have AutoCAD open. Support for the new Adobe Creative Cloud Download one or more Adobe Creative Cloud accounts from the new Account Center and add the applications you want to use with AutoCAD to your account. Adobe Creative Cloud provides tools for accessing media on the web, and enabling clients to work with your designs and collaborate with you in Adobe CS. Adobe CS applications include graphic design and illustration, video editing, and authoring tools. Once you've installed Adobe Creative Cloud, you can use any of your free Creative Cloud applications or log in to your account with a new Adobe ID to add your Adobe ID from other Adobe apps. Download the latest version of AutoCAD for free from the new Account Center. Visit the Account Center or the Windows Start menu to open it. Browse the web and take advantage of all of the new features in AutoCAD 2023
